Important Notice for California Residents: The notice above is provided to you as required by a new California law that affords you certain rights regarding use of your personal information that, in some cases, are different from those described in our Privacy Notice. Please read it carefully. This law is now being challenged in court. In the event that the court strikes down the law, in whole or in part, and this impacts any section of the notice, the choices made under that section would be considered null and void. If this happens, we will notify you, by the same means this notice was sent, of the court's decision.
